Since its release in 2016, Pokemon Go has been a popular Mobile AR game with millions of passionate users around the world. The basics of the game are simple, you must find and catch pokémon in your region, add important objects and stay healthy. However, if you want to be a Pokemon Go Pro, there is much more to consider because the game has undergone several updates and includes interesting features that improve the user experience. In this spirit, here are some additional tips and tips on Pokemon Go to help you master the evolution of Pokemon Go and get bonus points fairly quickly. Part 1: What are the pokemon go tips for beginners? The Pokemon game is quite simple, but full of challenges. You will catch as much Pokémon as you can, stop in Pokémon stores to refresh yourself and increase your experience. If this is the first time you have been playing the game, Pokemon Go's advice will help you start. Step 1: Modify the settings before starting, first of all, configure the parameters of your Pokémon according to your needs. Users can access the settings by clicking on the Poke Ball icon on the home screen. Then click on the parameter icon in the upper right corner, as indicated in the image. Here, you will see different options that you can modify according to your preferences and your convenience. For example, you can allow battery battery extension. Step 2: Choosing a starting Pokémon The next important step is to choose a starting Pokémon from the three departure options available. The three Pokémon have the same statistics, and choosing one of them will not affect the result of the game. Step 3: Catch your first Pokémon now, the most important thing is to find and catch your first Pokémon. To catch Pokemon, users need poke balls - you can get these poke balls in poke stations and gymsnasiums. The better you hit the ball, the more likely you are to catch the Pokémon. The easiest way is to walk in the neighborhood and look for Pokémon. The ring around the Pokémon indicates how difficult it is to catch; Green is the easiest, followed by orange and red. Keep in mind that the Pokémon does not stay in the same place, so you have to hurry when you see them. Step 4: Training of trainer level is one of the most important advice for Pokémon. The level of a Pokemon Go coach dictates relatively important features. Try to upgrade your coachLighter and rarer Pokemon and increases the CP or battle power of your Pokemon. Step 5: Choose which Pokemon you want to raise next. To bring it closer to its maximum potential, you need to upgrade the pokemon. When deciding which Pokémon to conquer, consider three things: CP limits, multiple moves, individual values. Offer an amazing balance between these three features for maximum benefits. Step 6: Power up your Pokemon, try to increase your Pokemon's CP or evolve it to a more powerful version to make your Pokemon stronger. Focus on sliding eggs, adding friends and sending gifts, packing and transforming more Pokemon to get maximum XP. Step 7: RAID Room Battles and Battles Participate in RAID Battles after gaining powerful Pokemon and enough experience. These rally battles happen when a Pokemon boss takes over a gym and you have to defeat this powerful Pokemon. Part 2: Advanced Tips and Tricks for Pokemon Go Fans Now that you know the basics of Pokemon Go, let's move on to the advanced and more powerful Pokemon Go tips and tricks for professionals. 1 Combine Swade with Mega Evolutions Mega Evolving is one of the best ways to increase your Pokemon CP. You need to collect the meta energy of the Pokemon you want to evolve. This feature only activates for a while and is useful for rally and battle - try to be as fast as possible with mega evolution. 2 Pokemon Stay Home There are many adventures in Pokemon, but we live in uncertain times. You can catch a deadly virus along the way, so the developers have introduced alternative ways to play Pokemon from a safe house. Just buy a Remote Passport for 100 poeecoins and as the name suggests, you can practically join other teams and catch rare Pokémon. 3 Turn off AR for easier recording Keep AR off, it will allow you to catch Pokemon easily and catch those that are further away. This avoids the need to constantly move the camera on the phone and also saves battery. This becomes even more useful when Pokemon appear in inconvenient places, as most strangers don't like having their camera pointed at them. Just go to settings from the app's main screen and disable the AR+ option. 4 Pick up a Wrecking Ball for more XP to quickly get more XP to catch an overpowered ball with a Pokémon advantage. This roll is difficult but offers a bonusTime to do things well. Master the art of the bent ball and gain additional XP for your efforts. 5 Check the power level of each movement, do not trust the Pokémon CP and consider the full measure of a movement. Staryu can have a lower CP value, but it can contain Psibeam and a water pistol compared to the value of CP, but only Slam Body Slam. This means that you always try to get the best level of performance in each movement. Part 3: Pokemon Go tips for level 20+ coaches are reached by exceeding level 20 and entering the Professional Player League. You will find below some professional tips pokemon go in 2022. 1. Fighting the gymnasium to slide XP with gymnasiums is probably the most difficult task in Pokemon, but you can also increase 400 xpp. You must have a strong Pokémon worth 20 or more to at least weaken the gym for a rival Pokémon. Many factors affect the combat in the gym, including the CP and the CP competitor, the number of Pokémon that you have defeated, etc. 2. Line the weakest Pokémon in your fitness team. Another easy way to get a larger XP is to boost the gym during training and test the team. Each time, your team gets XP and you get an additional XP for using a Pokémon with a similar or lower CP as Pokémon Gym. However, you can lose the battle if your Pokémon or your team is too weak. 3. Buy incubators and lucky eggs from the store. As you go up to each level, the egg incubator will be difficult to find and lucky eggs will help you get up. The egg incubator is the most useful element of the Pokémon store. If you can, buy eggs directly at the store to have an advantage on the competition. 4. The maximum use of Pokemon's evolution with a success egg is the most important. Using Pokémon wisely is using them wisely. The evolutionary Pokémon earns 500 XPP and fortunately, you can create 50 to 60 Pokémon in just half an hour. Release XP with a makeshift egg. So wait until you have a lot of Pokémon for evolution. Additional tip: How to walk on Pokemon using GPS- GPS and Android joystick? Pokémon Go is a location -based game, which means that you can go to the gymnasium, participate in the raids and simulate your location in a virtual place. As for the best local GPS converter, IMYFONE Anyto stands out. Thanks to this tool, you can change the location of a mobile phone anywhere in the world in one click. Thanks to this false location, you can get rare Pokémon and widen the list - this will give you a competitive advantage in the game. Here's howUse this software: Step 1.
